RULES OF ORDER,

As Adopted in 1869, Modified in 1875, and Adopted at Each Session Since.

1. The Conference shall meet at 8½ o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjourning at its discretion.

2. The President shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned, and cause the same to be opened by reading the Scriptures, singing and prayer, and shall have the journals of the preceding day read and approved.

3. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but, in case of an appeal, the question shall be taken without debate.

4. He shall appoint all committees not otherwise specially ordered by the Conference, but any member may decline serving on more than one committee at the same time.

5. All motions and resolutions introduced by any member shall be reduced to writing, if the President, Secretary, or any member of the Conference requests it.

6. When a motion, resolution or report presented, is read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference, but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, at any time before action or amendment.

7. No new motion or resolution shall be made before the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following should intervene, which motion shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, viz.: Indefinite postponement, lying on the table, reference to a committee, postponement to any given time, or amendment.

8. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the President, to call him to order when he departs from the question, uses personalities, or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order, or any other member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

9. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address himself to the President.

10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject, or more than fifteen minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

11. When any motion or resolution shall have passed, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration.

12. No member shall absent himself from the services of Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar of the Conference at the time such question is put by the President, except by leave of Conference, when such member has been necessarily absent.

14. Every member who shall be within the bar at the time the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, excuse him.

15. No motion shall be considered unless seconded.

16. The Secretary shall keep a journal of the proceedings of the Conference, and, when approved, shall record them in a book provided for that purpose. He shall take charge of the journal and other papers of the Conference, and preserve them with care; suffer no person to take a copy of any paper during the interval of Conference, except with the consent of the Conference; and shall forward the journal and papers to the next Annual Conference.

17. A motion to adjourn shall be in order at any time, and shall be decided without debate.

18. No preacher shall bring any charge against any member of this Conference until he has first given him information of the same, either by letter or otherwise, ten days in advance, if practicable, so that the accused may have an opportunity for defense.

19. When any brother intends to object to the passage of another's character, it shall be his duty to hand the name of the person against whom objections are to be made to the President of the Conference.

[The Conference, September 8, 1873, ordered the previous question on a pending motion, thus establishing a precedent.]

[A motion to table an amendment to a resolution does not carry the resolution to the table. This has itself been the understanding in Detroit Conference.]—Secretary.

The following, offered by J. S. Smart, who, with others, addressed the Conference on the subject introduced, were adopted by unanimous rising vote:

Resolved, 1, That we desire, as the first act of this Conference, to put on record an expression of our most earnest sympathy, and profound and prayerful interest, in the President of the United States and his family in their terrible affliction.

Resolved, 2, That while we recognize no other hand in the President's attempted assassination, than that of the assassin, and the foul spirit that inspired the deed, yet with adoring gratitude we behold the hand of God turning aside the murderous bullet, so as to prevent its at once taking his precious life. And while we give full credit to the skill of his surgeons, and the assiduous and untiring efforts of all his attendants, yet we fully believe, and gratefully acknowledge, that a power above all known skill and effort has thus far lengthened out his life. We also believe that if he recovers, and is restored to the nation in his full strength again, it must be by the help of God in answer to prayer.

Resolved, 3, That we give thanks to God, that even in this great national trial, He has so over-ruled that the din of political strife has been hushed, sections and parties have been forgotten, and even national boundaries have been no bar to a prayerful sympathy which demonstrates more forcibly than almost anything else the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God.

Resolved, 4, That believing, as we do, in the prevailing efficacy of prayer, and that whatever occurs, all things, if received in a humble, submissive, prayerful spirit, will be overruled for the highest good of the nation, we expect all our people, and all praying people everywhere, to continue, both in private and public, to offer to God unceasing supplications in behalf of the President, his family, and the nation.—J. #### MEMOIRS.

Presented by Wm. J. Campbell, Committee on Memoirs.

Rev. Edwin Foster was born in Hebron, Washington county, N. Y., March 10, 1839, and died December 21, 1880. He was apparently in good health up to the moment of his death, having been out all the afternoon, and dropping dead, without warning, on the steps of a drug store, in the village of Freeland, Michigan. His disease is supposed to have been of the heart. The Quarterly Conference of the charge passed a series of resolutions, in which they express their deep sympathy with his bereaved widow and fatherless children, thus suddenly called to mourn his departure to the better world. Brother Foster dated his conversion at the age of 8 years, but did not then make a profession of religion. At 11, he was again brought to a deep sense of Christian duty. From that time till he was 29 years of age, the conviction that God had called him to the ministry weighed upon him, and often brought him into darkness. In whatever direction he turned, the Lord met him, and enforced His claims upon his conscience. He then yielded, and at once felt that the Lord had clothed him with power to exhort and preach the Word. His appointments have been as follows: 1871, Cass City; 1872-3, Tuscola; 1874-5-6, Tittabawassee; 1877, Watrousville; 1878-9, Bridgeport; 1880, Freeland. He was married July 4, 1859, to Miss Elizabeth L. Fullmer, of Amsterdam, N. Y. Three children are left to cherish his memory and follow his example. Brother Foster acquitted himself as a faithful and efficient minister. He was ambitious only to be the instrument of saving men, and to this end he bent every energy of his soul. In a letter to Rev. J. M. Arnold, D. D., during the year, he said, "I realize that I am a very unprofitable servant, but I have found my only satisfaction in His work." We cannot doubt that his sudden death found him ready for his Master's approbation. "Servant of God, well done!"

Rev. John Pugh, a superannuated member of our Conference, departed this life at the residence of Mr. Philp, near Verona, Huron county, Michigan, on February 20, 1881. His birth-place was Oxford, England, and the event occurred in 1801. His parents were Methodists, who had been trained under the personal ministry of Wesley and the "fathers." Brother Pugh had no conception of any time when he was converted, but he was so taught in infancy that he daily grew in the knowledge and fear of God. He joined the church at ten, having felt a peremptory call to the ministry at seven years of age. He was a local preacher at seventeen, and often traveled twenty miles on foot on the Sabbath, and preaching three times. At the age of twenty, Dr. Bunting endeavored to gain him for the Ceylon mission, but the support of his then widowed mother prevented. He entered the itinerancy at the age of fifty-five, at the organization of the Minnesota Conference, where he then resided. After serving eight years in that Conference, by change of boundary, he was attached to the Detroit Conference, in which he served five more years, and then received a superannuated relation. He had no relatives in this country, and had accumulated nothing for old age. He was thus utterly dependent upon the sympathy of friends, and the pittance which the Conference is able to give to its worn-out ministry. Brother Pugh was a pure man, devout and simple in his faith, and wholly devoted to the work of God. He died peacefully, and was borne to his rest by his old parishioners and friends, Rev. George Walker, of Sand Beach, officiating at his funeral, assisted by Rev. Mr. Curry (Baptist), of Verona.

Rev. William Fox closed his long and useful ministry by a sudden death at Bancroft, Shiawassee county, Mich., on March 26, 1881. On the Wednesday previous, while in his usual health and spirits, he was stricken with apoplexy, recovering only momentary gleams of consciousness until his triumphant spirit took its departure for the better life on the Saturday following at 5.30 p. m. Funeral services were held at Bancroft, and also at Fenton, where his remains were carried for burial. Brother Fox was born in Toronto, Canada, August 18, 1823. His parents came from England, and when ten years of age, he with them removed to Michigan and settled near Detroit. His only educational advantages were those of the common school. He was the subject of strong religious impressions in childhood, but did not make a profession until his nineteenth year, when he was converted, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the year succeeding his conversion, he was licensed as an exhorter by Henry Colclazer, and two years later as local preacher by James Shaw, and sent as a supply on the Manchester circuit, with Henry Penfield as his colleague. In 1845, he was received into the Michigan Conference, and appointed to Ingham circuit, with D. A. Curtis as colleague. Lyons circuit, 1847; here his labors were so severe that he was prostrated by sickness, and for five months compelled to forego all labor. He so far recovered that he supplied Dearborn circuit during the latter part of the year, and continued in the same charge the succeeding year, with Samuel Bessey as colleague. 1851-2, he supplied Farmington circuit, and 1853, Plymouth. 1854, he was re-admitted on trial in the Conference, and returned to Plymouth: 1855, Pinckney circuit: 1856-7, Tecumseh; 1858-9, Saginaw City; 1860, Marquette; 1861-2, Houghton; 1863, Monroe; 1864-5, Bay City; 1866, Lapeer; 1867, Owosso district, which position he filled with marked ability for four years. In 1871-2, Garland Street, Flint; 1873, Romeo district, which he filled with the same ability for three years; 1876, the districts were reduced in number but enlarged in territory, his district now included what had been the largest parts of Romeo and Port Huron districts, it now took the latter name, and he became its P. E.; 1877, Port Huron station; 1878, Ruby, when he enlisted with all his soul to rebuild the Port Huron Church, and spent much of his time in soliciting and collecting funds for this object, in which he was very successful. In 1879 he was appointed to Fort Gratiot, and in 1880 to Bancroft, which proved his last charge. He was married May 4, 1845, to Miss Laura Tuttle, by whom he had one child, a daughter Nellie, who is now Mrs. Jones, of Port Huron, Michigan. The official board of Port Huron Church testified their appreciation of his efforts for the Church, in a series of resolutions of the most consolatory character. He fulfilled a full-orbed ministry, having devoted himself with singular fidelity to this sole ambition and work for 38 years. In the earlier and more severe work of the itinerancy, he has borne a noble and efficient part. He aimed at soul saving, as an end, and it was difficult to find his peer in revival work. He went cheerfully where the "powers that be" ordained, and manifested no ambition. He coveted no earthly aggrandizement, and none can doubt that his reward will be great in Heaven. Simple and fervent in his piety, he kindled the flame of devotion in others more by his spirit and example, than by any peculiarity of discourse. Thousands mourn him as a father. Perhaps no one in the Conference has led more persons to the altar of penitence, and to the witness of acceptance. He has died in his early autumn, before the frosts of age had blighted his vigor, and has left an example that is more eloquent than any tribute can be, and that will continue his memory in living freshness when this generation shall have passed away.

Rev. George Wilson, died May 6, 1881; born April 5, 1836, in Lincolnshire, England. His mother, on whom his care and religious training devolved, was a woman of deep piety, and of home religion. Consequently, at the age of six years, he came under religious conviction, and was converted when thirteen years old. His conversion occurred at home, kneeling by his bedside, with his mother praying for him: after a struggle of three hours, he found peace in believing. He immediately united with the Wesleyan Church. He came to this country alone, when only sixteen years of age. In the great religious awakening of 1857, he consecrated himself anew to God, and became convinced that it was his duty to preach the Gospel, and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Milford, where he then resided. He graduated from Evanston, Ill., in 1862, was licensed as an exhorter before going to the Theological Seminary, and while there was licensed to preach, and recommended to the Detroit Conference, and was received on trial at its session at Ann Arbor, September 24, 1862, and appointed to Wyandotte; 1863, Romulus; 1864-5, Marysville; 1866-7, Lakeport; here he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs, which necessitated his superannuation at the Conference of 1868. The hope which he indulged that rest and change would soon restore him to health, was a vain one, and this honorable relation he sustained till the time when the Master called him to his reward. He was always willing to do for the church what his health would allow. He was united in marriage November 5, 1862, with Miss Eliza Bourns (sister of Rev. A. F.) who with three surviving daughters (one preceded her father to the spirit world), mourn his loss, but nevertheless, patiently.

Rev. Albert R. Hazen was born in the State of New York, 1824. He was admitted into full connection in the South Illinois Conference in 1863, and was transferred to the Detroit Conference in 1868. His appointments in Michigan have been as follows: 1868-70, Fairfield; 1871, Ridgeway; 1872-3, Addison; 1874-5, Napoleon; 1876, Deerfield; 1877-9, Dryden. At the Conference of 1880, he was appointed to New Haven, Port Huron district, in Macomb county. With unflinching zeal and fidelity, he had labored in the ministry for twenty years, and commenced his twenty-first year in the same spirit to work for Jesus, but at the beginning failing health compelled him to abandon his post. He went to Metamora, a village in his former field of labor, and here, on the 26th of August, 1881, his happy spirit received the summons to go home, and be forever with the Lord. His funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Samuel Bird, from Luke 23, 50, "And he was a good man," a very appropriate text, for Brother Hazen was a very unassuming man, modesty and genuine worth sweetly blended to make him estimable to all who knew him. He was favored with a revival in almost every charge to which he had been sent, and scores of souls can testify that he led them to Jesus. His farewell was quiet, but glorious. His last testimony was, "All is clear. Christ is precious." His remains were taken to Adrian for interment. He leaves a wife and two sons to inherit a name and reputation that entitle them to respect and sympathy from all who love the Master.

Sister Clara Kimball Dawe, wife of the Rev. Wm. Dawe, pastor of the Tabernacle Methodist Episcopal Church, Detroit, fell asleep in Jesus May 26, 1881. She was born in Illinois, May 17, 1851. Her father died in her infancy, and an only brother and mother survive. She was early led to Christ. She left three children, the youngest but a few days old. Her death had not been anticipated, but pneumonia intervening, in her feeble state, proved the messenger of God to summon her to the heavenly rest. She expressed herself calmly hopeful, and spoke with complete assurance of "rest in the arms of Jesus." She made the acquaintance of her now stricken husband at Evanston, where they were associated in study, and they were married by Rev. Dr. Fowler August 28, 1873, in the same church where her funeral services were held. She was devoted to her husband in his home and in his work, and helped him in his toils and burdens, and knew how to say the right word at the right time. Young, amiable, and hopeful, and charged with the sacred responsibilities of a wife, a mother, and religious helper, it has pleased the Master to grant her release from the work and trials of life.

Sister Margaret Jane Russell, wife of Rev. Jesse B. Russell, passed triumphantly to her heavenly rest September 7, 1881, at Carlton, Michigan. She was born August 5, 1832, in Luzerne county, State of Pennsylvania. She moved with her parents near Adrian, in the year 1850. She was happily converted to God at a camp-meeting when about eighteen years of age, and soon after united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was united in marriage with her now deeply bereaved husband in the summer of 1857, and since that time has shared with him in the sunshine and shadow of the itinerancy. For many years consumption has been doing its sure and fatal work. She was confined to her bed since about the first of April, and was a great sufferer. A short time before her death she repeated the words, "Jesus, lover of my soul," and when her strength failed these words were repeated to her, to which she responded, "O! precious words." A few days before her death she said to her husband, "The past has been an uneven way, but, thank God, there has been an even hand to lead us. I do not fear to pass over, for I know whom I trust, and He will not forsake me." She leaves, beside her sorrowing husband, one son and his wife, and one daughter, to mourn their loss and rejoice over her gain.

Bishop Erastus O. Haven, D. D., LL. D., was born in Boston, Massachusetts, November 1, 1820; graduated at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Connecticut, 1842; elected President of Amenia Seminary, 1846; entered the New York Conference and appointed to the Twenty-fourth Street Church, New York, 1848; professor of Latin language and literature, Michigan University, 1852-3; professor of history and English literature, Michigan University, 1854-5; elected editor of Zion's Herald 1856; elected President of Michigan University, 1863 to 1869; elected President of Northwestern University, Evanston, 1869-1872; elected the first corresponding secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1872; elected Chancellor of Syracuse University, 1874 to 1880; elected Bishop May 12, and consecrated May 19, 1880; died at Salem, Oregon, August 2, 1881. Bishop Haven was a descendant of the Pilgrim Fathers, his ancestry being traced back to Richard Haven, who lived in Plymouth, Massachusetts, in 1640. It is difficult to speak in fitting terms of the character, many-sided and versatile genius, of this great and good man. Our holy religion is well illustrated in the life of this illustrious friend and brother. As a preacher, writer, and scholar he had few equals in the Methodist Episcopal Church. To the student and the minister he will be an ever living example. His ability and success as an educator was pre-eminent, because of his extensive research and wisdom, he intermeddled himself with all knowledge. A great host of educated, influential citizens mourn over him as their beloved friend and teacher and guide. Thousands of ministers will recall with deep emotion his saintly face and consecrated life. His genial, lovable nature drew all men to him, and though a man of decided views and pronounced opinions none knew him but to love him, and of him it may be truthfully said he had not an enemy. His character and labors are a precious legacy to the church. The Faculty of the University of Michigan has done honor to that noble institution of learning by the admirably written minute in which they have recorded their generous appreciation of the work of Bishop Haven. We respectfully beg leave to insert it here that it may speak for itself.

"The University Senate met August 5th and passed the following memorial upon the death of Bishop Haven: Rev. Erastus O. Haven, D. D., Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church and an ex-President of this University, died at Salem, Oregon, on the 2d day of August, 1881. Dr. Haven held the chair of the Latin language and literature in this University in 1852 and 1853; that of history and English literature in 1854 and 1855, and the office of President of the University from 1863 to 1869. This Senate has received with profound grief the intelligence of his death. Cut down suddenly, almost at the beginning of the sacred duties of the high and responsible office to which he had been called by the church of his choice, while still strong and vigorous, and to all appearance capable of doing good service in the cause of his Master for many years to come, he has left a record of great and manifold and fruitful labors to perpetuate his memory and to console the multitude of friends, brethren and associates who mourn his loss. The uninterrupted success of his life, from the day of his graduation at Middletown to that of his death in Oregon, were due to his unwavering faith in Christ, his indomitable energy, his ready adaptation to circumstances, his versatility of talent and breadth and variety of attainment, his prudence and tact in administration, and, not least, his remarkable facility and felicity of expression in writing, and especially in public speaking. He was elected to many and honorable positions, involving either educational, literary or ministerial labor, but amongst all the high duties to which he was called none did he discharge with more distinguished ability than those of the presidency of the University. During the six years of his administration the attendance of undergraduates was constantly increasing, while the institution was steadily progressing in its proper work and growing in popular favor. Nor less was his administration distinguished for the internal harmony and unity promoted by his large and kindly spirit, which at the same time attached all members of the University so heartily and firmly to his own person. This University will ever cherish and honor the memory of President Haven, and while it mourns his death it is thankful for the good which a kind Providence has permitted him to achieve, not only here but in many fields of beneficent enterprise. The Senate, while thus expressing its sense of the loss sustained by religion and education in the death of Bishop Haven, desires most sincerely and respectfully to extend its sympathy to the family so suddenly visited by a mysterious but wise and merciful Providence, with the great sorrow and heaviest of earthly bereavements.

By order of the Senate.

HENRY S. FRIEZE, Acting President.
CHARLES K. ADAMS, Secretary."

BOOK CONCERN DIVIDENDS.

When the foundations of the Methodist Episcopal Church were laid on this continent our fathers saw the necessity for circulating religious literature; and in their wisdom, and with their own limited means, originated the Book Concern, in order to meet that necessity. Under their judicious management it soon became a source of financial profit, and, as was natural, the question soon arose: "What shall be done with the surplus profits of the Book Concern?" The first answer given to this question was: "They shall be applied according to the discretion of the Conference, toward the College, the preachers' fund, the deficiencies of the preachers, the distant missions, or the debts on our churches." This answer was changed in 1790 to "as the Bishop and Council shall direct." But, as the ministers began to realize the hardships of the itinerancy, and saw the greater hardships threatening them after they had consumed their lives and energies in their work; and as they recognized that, in a very important sense, the Book Concern legitimately belonged to them, hence also the surplus profits, they imposed limitations upon their own action with regard to their distribution, by enacting the law of 1796, which says that "the produce of the sale of our books, after the debts are paid and a sufficient capital is provided for carrying on the business, shall be regularly paid into the Chartered Fund"—a fund which originated in the same year for the purpose of relieving the preachers who had suffered "unspeakable hardships on poor circuits," worn-out preachers, and widows and orphans of preachers. The organic law of the Chartered Fund is very explicit in declaring that the aim of this fund is benevolent in its character. It is to "make further provision for the distressed traveling preachers, their families, and for the superannuated and worn-out preachers, and the widows and orphans of preachers." These are the clearly specified objects of its charity, and no other. Agreeably to the original design and rules of the chartered fund the surplus profits of the Book Concern were legally set apart for the same specific objects of charity, and no other. And for ensuring the carrying out of the benevolent design of the two funds, the law of 1804 was enacted, and the Conference of 1808 adopted the Sixth Restrictive Rule. The General Conference of 1872, clearly recognizing that the surplus profits of the Book Concern legitimately belong to the "deficient traveling preachers, their families, and the widows and orphans of preachers," made an effort, by adopting a resolution, to provide for the expenses of the General Conference, the expenses of delegates sent by the General Conference to other religious bodies, the support of the Bishops, and other general expenses of the church, without intrenching upon funds consecrated to other purposes, that is, consecrated, since 1796, to the purpose of relieving the wants of deficient and distressed preachers, worn-out preachers, widows and the fatherless. This effort has been partly consummated by the General Conference of 1880 adopting a resolution which makes provision "to defray the expenses of the next General Conference, and the expenses of delegates to corresponding" ecclesiastical bodies. This same Conference also placed the support of the Bishop wholly on the people, where it properly belongs. And these acts of the General Conference more than indicate that the time is not far distant when the provisions made by the law of the church to benefit the needy by regularly applying to them the surplus profits of the Book Concern will be realized.

Therefore, resolved, First, that we heartily approve of the action of the Book Committee at its session in New York, February, 1881, in recommending a return to the policy of regularly applying the produce of the Book Concern to the support of the several needy classes specified in the law of the church.

Resolved, Second, that we endorse the suggestion of the Book Committee with regard to the distribution of the Book Concern dividends in proportion to the number of members in each Annual Conference. We also recommend that the same principle of distribution be adopted with regard to the dividends of the chartered fund, and that the General Conference so change the law of the discipline as to secure this desirable result.

Resolved, Third, that we respectfully request that the Book Agents hereafter strictly regard "337 of the Discipline, which requires them to make dividends every year, and in as large amounts as are consistent with the best interests of the Book Concern.

On motion, Resolved, that the Secretary be instructed to furnish a copy of this report to our denominational papers for publication.—THOMAS STALKER, Ch'n.

EDUCATION.

The Church must educate. Its mission includes teaching and preaching. Our church schools and colleges and universities and theological institutions are of God, the products of Christianity, and essential to the highest well-being of mankind. The Detroit Conference has from its beginning pronounced itself unmistakably on this question. We are deeply interested in the movements of the Board of Education of our church, and commend to our ministry and membership the claims this new agency has upon their sympathies and support. Let the children's day be observed in all our charges. Our special relations to Albion College enhance our interests in its prosperity. The report of its trustees assuring us of increased strength and usefulness in all its departments greatly delights us. We pray that its present year and future may be more abundant than the past. Your committee recommends the appointment of Dr. D. C. Jacokes special visitor to Albion College. His enlarged experience and great influence in the educational departments of Michigan will secure for him special recognition by the faculty and trustees. It also recommends the election of Rev. Henry C. Northrup and Hon. John Moore of Saginaw City to the office of Trustees of the College for the full term of three years next ensuing.—JOHN McELDOWNEY, Ch'n.

MISSION AUDITORS.

The Auditing Committee of the Detroit Annual Conference, having carefully examined the vouchers for missionary moneys appropriated within the bounds of this Conference for the year 1881, find the same correct.—J. C. WORTLEY, Ch'n.

SANCTITY OF THE SABBATH.

We are pained and alarmed at the growing disregard of the Christian Sabbath in this Christian land. Notwithstanding the earnest utterances and resolutions passed by Christian churches of almost all creeds and orders, the tide of Sabbath-breaking sweeps on. It is a fearful tide, full of evils, and threatening the very foundations of Christian society and good government. As a possible means of checking the great sin and danger we advise:

First, That our ministers teach and preach more frequently and pointedly upon the obligations of all men, especially of professing Christians, for the religious observance of this holy day.

Second, That we encourage the holding of public gatherings or conventions, whenever practicable, in which the various features of the great subject shall be canvassed and brought to the minds of the people.

Third, That we plead with God in our public as well as private prayers that by His spirit He will quicken the consciences of the people so that they shall raise higher the standard of morality on this subject.—S. REED, Ch'n.

[F.]

PERIODICALS.

The Methodist Episcopal Church is well supplied with periodical literature, and these periodicals are so graded that it would seem that every demand of the Church is nearly met. The Quarterly Review, so long and ably edited by Dr. Whedon, still holds on the even tenor of its way, growing better and better with increasing age, and surely ought to be found upon the table of every Methodist preacher in the Conference. The Christian Advocate, abating a too conservative spirit, is well conducted, and should commend the general support of the Church. The Northwestern Christian Advocate is always a live, newsy, readable paper, and ought to have a much wider circulation in our own territory. Its patronage is shamefully small, especially when we take into consideration the ability of the paper, and the further fact that its editor is a member of this Conference, and it does seem that, with proper attention, its subscription might be greatly enlarged, and we would earnestly urge upon the members of this Conference to do their "level best" to increase the circulation of the Northwestern. Our Sunday School literature is abundant in quantity and excellent in quality, and ought not to be supplanted by an inferior literature, outside of the church, on the ground of cheapness. It is not so much bulk as condensation we need in Sunday School helps and papers, not brass but the pure gold, and we deem it therefore to be of prime importance for all Methodist Sunday Schools to patronize our own literature, and not be deceived by the cry of cheapness, by irresponsible outside parties. Our own Michigan Christian Advocate, though last is not by any means the least, and we heartily commend it to all Michigan Methodists, and trust that its shadow will never grow less. In view, therefore, of the excellency of our Church periodicals, be it

Resolved, That we will put forth all reasonable effort to enlarge the circulation of these periodicals, and that we will recommend to all our Methodist families to take at least one of our Church papers.—A. J. BIGELOW, Ch'n.

[G.]

PARSONAGES.

From the minutes of the last session we learn that the Detroit Conference contains 207 charges, in 67 of which there is no definite place for the preacher and his family to dwell. As the result of this neglect on the part of the people, one-third of our brethren entering upon their new fields of labor, do not know where they shall abide, or how many times they may be obliged to move during the year, subjecting their families to many inconveniences, and often extreme suffering. For a charge to be able to say to the new preacher, "Here is a good home," is to him a great comfort, and a blessing to the charge. Thus he may, without embarrassment or delay, enter upon his work, while the Church reaps the immediate benefit. Again, have we not often been afflicted by some brother who has conceived the pious (!) notion of selling an old house, unfit for himself as a home, to the Church for a parsonage? Is it not also a fact that some good parsonages do not receive proper care from their occupants? Therefore,

Resolved, 1, That upon each of these charges thus deficient, the people be exhorted to build, as early as possible, a comfortable and convenient parsonage in a healthy location.

Resolved, 2, That every preacher consider it a conscientious duty, which he owes to the Church and to his successor, to leave the parsonage and grounds in as good, or even better, condition than when he entered upon them.

Resolved, 3, That our people be urged, as early as possible, to put into our parsonages the heavy furniture needed for pastors' families.—E. P. PIERCE, Ch'n.

[H.]

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the cause of Church Extension, would submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1, That the Detroit Conference recognizes its obligations to the Board of Church Extension for the very generous appropriations to aid Church building enterprises on our frontier charges and other needy places within its bounds.

Resolved, 2, That the growth of our work in the northern part of our Conference will make still larger demands on the Board. Therefore,

Resolved, 3, That it is the duty of the preachers to urge the claims of the Board of Church Extension upon the attention of our people, and ask for correspondingly large contributions to its treasury.—O. WHITMORE, Ch'n.

[I.]

BIBLE CAUSE.

Believing the Bible to be the Word of God, and the prime instrument in the salvation of the world, and recognizing the American Bible Society as our agency for its publication and distribution, therefore,

Resolved, 1, That we urge upon all our ministers the desirability and necessity of taking up a collection in all our charges for this good cause, and aiding the society in every possible way in the distribution of the Bible.

Resolved, 2, That we recognize the efficiency of this Society in the promptness with which it has responded to the call coming from our suffering people in the burnt district.—JACOB HORTON, Ch'n.

[K.]

TEMPERANCE.

Among the many foes which, as ministers of the gospel, we encounter, intemperance is one of the most formidable. The evil touches us in every sphere of our activities. The antagonism of the open dram shop to the open church is appalling; the dram shop is open, for the most part, seven days in the week, and from early morning till late at night; the church, as a rule, is open but one day in seven, and only a portion of that time. Intemperance keeps people from the house of God: it lures the youth from our Sunday Schools; it destroys the members of our churches; and, by craft, snatches the little ones from our firesides; it takes the money from our communities, which ought to be given in support of our churches, and in carrying forward our benevolent enterprises: it disintegrates society, debauches public morals, degrades politics, defies law, and is the sworn foe of that holy religion which we are endeavoring to promote. We therefore, as ministers of the Lord Jesus Christ, can give no quarter to the traffic in intoxicating liquors. We deplore it, we condemn it, we anathematize it, and we would to God that we had the power to totally and forever prohibit it. Be it therefore

Resolved, 1, That we urge upon our preachers the employment of the Committee on Temperance, as provided for in ¶ 178 of the Discipline.

Resolved, 2, That we exhort our people to a careful study and adoption of the methods recommended in the new chapter on Temperance, by the General Conference of 1880.

Resolved, 3, That we recommend to our preachers and people the work and aims of the Michigan State Temperance Alliance.—JOHN HAMILTON, Ch'n.

[L.]

FREEDMAN'S CAUSE.

The opportunity for successful labor by the Freedman's Aid Society has been largely increased during the past year. The entire South is an open field where the seeds of truth may be widely sown. The Church owes it to itself, because of all the trusts committed to it, to do all that it can for that portion of our people. Therefore,

Resolved, 1, That we regard the work among the people of the South of paramount importance. 2. That as a Conference, and as pastors, we pledge ourselves to do all that we can to raise the apportionment for this work.—JNO. ALEX. McILWAIN, Ch'n.

[M.]

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION.

There is a growing demand that all public teachers shall be thoroughly fitted for their work. The minister of the Gospel must not fall behind in the scope and thoroughness of his scholarship. Nor need he, since the facilities for acquiring scholastic preparation are so complete. A broad literary course of study is all-important; but the student for the ministry should also have the benefit to be received from the school of theology. As the lawyer and the physician are required to have special preparation for their work, so the preacher of the Gospel, who ought to be "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed," should, if possible, complete the full course of study in one of our theological schools. The Garrett Biblical Institute affords ample opportunity for theological training. We are gratified to learn that the past year has been one of large success to this "school of the prophets." Its financial condition is much improved and the number of its students increased. The debt of $60,000 which has so long embarrassed it is nearly provided for through the labors of Dr. W. C. Dandy, the financial agent. Thus far nothing has been contributed from this Conference toward the debt. It is the opinion of your committee that at least $2,500 of the required amount should be raised by the Detroit Conference. In consideration of these facts, we submit the following:

Resolved, (1.) That we will endeavor to persuade those having in view the sacred office of the ministry, as far as practicable, to take a full literary and theological course of study in the schools.

Resolved, (2.) That we hereby express our high estimation of the work done by Garrett Biblical Institute, and pledge to it anew our hearty support and our earnest effort to help to meet its present indebtedness.

We nominate as visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute: Rev. John Alabaster, D. D., and Rev. H. C. Northrup, B. D.—L. P. DAVIS, Ch'n.

[N.]

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

No argument is needed to show the importance of Sunday School work, in view of the fact that there are between five and six millions of children in the Sunday Schools of this country. Of these more than one and one-half millions look for their spiritual instruction, to the Methodist Episcopal Church. With infidelity of the rankest and subtlest kind so prevalent in the moral atmosphere, with pernicious literature spread on every hand, with a growing spirit of irreverence, and the awful curse of rum destroying many of the youth, it behooves the church to exercise the most vigilant watch over these "lambs of the flock;" we therefore deprecate the indifference of many of our pastors towards this department of church work, and urge the utmost activity in this field of Christian labor; we also disapprove of the use of Sunday School literature and helps not published by our own church, and recommend, as far as practicable, the exclusive use of our own publications. Again we regret to notice the secular tendency of Sunday School instruction, and appeal to our ministers to make the teaching more spiritual, looking towards the early conversion of the youth.—L. E. LENNOX, Ch'n.

[O.]

THE BURNT DISTRICT.

Your committee to which was referred the question as to the wants of the people in that district of Michigan which has been recently devastated by fire, respectfully reports: Your committee has to the best of its ability carefully considered the whole subject, and is unanimously of opinion:

Firstly, That while, in response to appeals already made to the public, large supplies have been forwarded and are now being distributed among the suffering people, there is such want as to make it our duty as a Conference to ask for further contributions of material and money for the people in general who have suffered by the fire.

Secondly, That it is not wise for us, as a Conference, to organize a system of agencies for the distribution of general supplies. Three committees are now at work, with distributing agencies already established and in operation. These committees are composed of citizens who are well known, honorable and capable, and we therefore deem it best to leave to these committees the work of general distribution.

Thirdly. We are of opinion that it will not be practicable for these general committees to do anything for the distinctively religious interests of the people. They cannot build churches nor support ministers. The reasons for this are at once apparent. And yet this is a matter quite as important as any other. To abandon "those sheep in the wilderness" would be an act of cowardice. To maintain the ordinances of religion in this devastated region is at once our duty to the people, to Methodism and to God. The churches which remain there through these times of ruin will be there when there shall be "beauty for ashes;" and as we stand by the people in their adversity, they will stand by us in their prosperity. This work, therefore, the Conference must undertake, and must secure funds for this special purpose. We therefore recommend:

Firstly. That the accompanying appeal be published in our own church papers.

Secondly. That materials and money which may be given in response to this appeal, to supply the general wants of the people, be sent to "The Relief Committee, Port Huron, Michigan."

Thirdly. That all moneys given in response to this appeal, for the specific religious and denominational purposes named therein, be sent to "David Preston, Detroit, Michigan."

Fourthly. That the fund raised for these special denominational purposes be administered by an executive committee of five persons, viz.: The Presiding Elder of Port Huron District, as Chairman; T. S. Skinner, Francis Berry, J. M. Fuller and Henry Whiting; this committee to be authorized to draw on the Treasurer for the funds in his hands.

Your committee reports still further that there have been sent to this Conference for immediate distribution among our ministers who have suffered by fire the following sums of money, viz:

From Southeast Indiana Conference.....	$100 00
From employes of the Book Concern at Cincinnati.....	180 00
From Eaton Rapids, Michigan.....	50 00
From Geo. Thompson, Detroit, Michigan.....	5 00
From G. C. Fawble, Ohio.....	5 00
From Rev. L. M. Bennett, Ann Arbor, Michigan.....	4 00
From Mr. Whiting, Wales, Michigan.....	4 00
From Rev. Wm. George, Dundee, Michigan.....	20 00
From Rev. Seth Reed .....	5 00

$373 00

We recommend that this money be distributed as follows:

To John Bettes.....	$148 00
To John Maywood.....	100 00
To John Andrews.....	75 00
To Geo. A. Walker.....	50 00

$373 00

We also recommend that our ministers on the burnt section write to the Rev. Geo. M. Tuthill, Kalamazoo, Michigan, who is District Superintendent for the American Bible Society for Michigan and Wisconsin, who will send what Bibles may be necessary to supply all destitute families in their pastoral charges. We urge this matter upon the special attention of those who may be appointed to charges on the devastated district.—J. H. BAYLISS, Ch'n.

Other sums were paid in and applied after the presentation and adoption of the above report.

CONFERENCE HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

It will be remembered that this society was organized on the last day of the Conference of 1880. It was too late then to hold a meeting and arrange a plan of work. Its officers are: D. C. Jacokes, President; James F. Davidson, Vice President; W. E. Bigelow, Treasurer; Wm. J. Campbell, Secretary and Librarian; Samuel Clements, Seth Reed, O. Whitmore, J. M. Arnold, Ebenezer Steele, Executive Committee. A request was made of each pastor to secure answers to four questions, the object of which was to secure a brief history of each station and circuit in the territory of the Conference. Only some six or seven of the pastors have sent to the Secretary the desired information. A meeting of the Society has been held during this session, and a plan of action determined on. A circular or card will be mailed to each pastor, on which questions will be printed, asking for the desired information. In view of the inability of this Society to do anything until the above-mentioned meeting, the re-election of the officers and executive committee whose names appear in this report is respectfully asked of the Conference.—WM. J. CAMPBELL, Sec. and Librarian.

REGISTER

DETROIT CONFERENCE.

(As modified at adjournment, September 19, 1881.)

NOTE.—At great pains and labor, the Secretary has repeatedly re-written this Register to make it accurate and strictly alphabetical.

Will all members help to fill all blanks and correct all errors? If any names are misspelled, or errors are noticed, send me a note.

“Div.,” in the seventh column, indicates the fact that such members fell into the Detroit Conference by the division of 1856.

All who joined the Detroit Conference in full connection had at least two years of prior service as preachers on probation. Those who joined other Conferences may have done very many years of service before coming here.

The sixth column shows time of admission to full membership, not of reception on trial. Give your name in full.

JOHN McELDOWNEY, Secretary,
Bay City, Michigan.

G. O. ROBINSON, Treas.

J. M. ARNOLD, Ch'n. of Com.

COMMITTEE TO PUBLISH MINUTES.

THE SECRETARY AND JOHN M. ARNOLD.

NOTE.—The Journal, and answers to Disciplinary Questions, and adopted resolutions in committee reports, constitute the "Journal" proper. Neither the Publishing Committee, nor the Secretary, personally, is responsible for inaccuracies in documents reported by committees. The remark is not intended to imply, however, that the documents are incorrect.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE OF 1882.

1. Report statistics and collections as early as possible—on the first day, if possible.
2. Report even dollars and no cents, if possible, to the Conference Treasurer.
3. Write proper names and figures with extreme care.
4. Presiding Elders should report at the next session a complete list of local preachers in their districts. Let the report state whether they are merely licensed, or Deacons or Elders. Give post office address of local preachers.
5. Superannuate and Supernumerary members should send their post office addresses to Secretary immediately.

TO EVERY MEMBER—PERSONAL.

The Secretary, JOHN McELDOWNEY, Bay City, should receive immediately, by mail, material to complete the Register.

1. Your name in full.
2. Born—where?
3. Born—when?
4. Admitted into full connection—in what Conference?
5. When?
6. If not originally admitted into Detroit Conference, from what Conference, or other Church, transferred to Detroit Conference?
7. When?
8. Examine the Register.

N. B.—I have carefully prepared a special blank designed to embrace such biographical data as are of general interest, which I will send to any member of the Conference upon application. These blanks are not for publication, but will be placed on file for future reference. About one hundred and fifty of the brethren in the two Conferences have already responded. A similar blank for the wives of our preachers will be forwarded to all those who desire, and who will fill and return it. When ordering please enclose stamp.

J. M. ARNOLD.
